Links Prize Shop

By David Perera

The school store is something created by the administration as an incentive for the children to behave and be happy in Learning Links School. For every great or good a kid gets on their behavior chart, they earn one Learning Links dollar. By the end of the week, if a kid behaves great, he or she will get 5 dollars for the week to go buy toys in the school store. The school store is open every Friday from 9:45am to 2:00pm. Students must go to the school store at their assigned time. Students can enjoy their toys and take them home. Remember to behave well!

Boo! It's Halloween!

By Nicholas Del Sol

Halloween is a holiday celebrated every year on October 31st. Learning Links School has a Trunk-or-Treat event every year to give students an opportunity to trick-or-treat safely. The event was on Thursday, October 28th. Students were able to wear their costumes, go into the haunted house, and eat candy. Lots of people liked going into the haunted house to get scared. The teachers dressed up in scary costumes and screamed Boo! The teachers also decorated their car trunks so that students could play games to get candy. Earlier in the day the school also celebrated Halloween by having a parade, letting the students dance, play fun activities, and watch a Halloween movie.

Celebrating Hispanics

By Isabela Arellano

Hispanic Heritage was on October 15th. Everybody dressed in Hispanic clothes. The whole school led the parade class by class and danced at the end. Ms. Martina started the conga line, and almost everybody joined! The students and teachers ate Hispanic foods. There were all kinds of breads, croquetas, tequenos, cookies, and cupcakes. Then they went into the cafeteria to dance to Hispanic songs from Just Dance. Then we watched movies like Coco or other Hispanic movies. After the movie, we played games like Loteria, Dominos, Pin the Tail on the Donkey, the Bull Fighting, and hit the pinata to get the candy out. Everyone had fun at the Hispanic Heritage celebration!

Pep Rally

By Orlando Llera

The Pep Rally was on Friday, October 22nd. First, Mr. Spirit was cheering and throwing candy and chocolates to the crowd. The student council and the mascot, Leroy, introduced the Brag Links. The basketball team played their first official game. It was very fun to watch. The dance team performed a choreography to Waka Waka by Shakira. They celebrated all of the October birthdays with the Happy Birthday banner and took pictures. At the end, teachers and students danced.

Come Get Your Books

By Julian Barcena

The Book Fair was from October 4th to 8th. Students got flyers that showed books from the Book Fair. Students went to the Book Fair to buy books. They went to the Book Fair in the morning from 9:30am to 10:30am. Reading Night Out was on the 5th. It was an opportunity for families to buy books. Two families came to Reading Night Out. The students enjoyed the Book Fair.

Columbus Day No More

By Julio Nunez

Columbus Day is a national holiday. We celebrated it on Monday, October 11th. Christopher Columbus thought he could get to the East Indies by going west. He asked many kings and queens to help pay for his trip but they said no. The King and Queen of Spain said yes. On October 12th, 1492 he went on his 3 ships: the Nina, the Pinta, and the Santa Maria. He thought he found one of the islands from the Indies. There were people on the land so he called them Indians. It was not the East Indies, it was the New World. This day is now also known as Indigenous Peoples' Day which honors Native American history and culture because they were the first inhabitants of what is now the United States of America.
